Terms of Use Policy

Data Collection Policy

Community Information Brant, Haldimand & Norfolk is managed by Contact Brant. We collect, organize, disseminate and provide access to information on human services, community resources, government services, and businesses as well as groups and facilities within Brant, Haldimand and Norfolk. Information is also gathered for organizations and programs in other geographic areas when this information is necessary to meet the needs of our communities. Human Services are those that promote, assist and/or direct personal development and social needs of persons in the community and promote or support mental, physical and emotional health and well-being – services that seek to: enable access to basic necessities of life, promote emotional stability, and facilitate adaptation to new environments.

Eligibility for Inclusion

Contact Brant will strive to maintain information on all non-profit, voluntary, community and government organizations legally engaged in the provision of human services that are available to the residents of Brant, Haldimand and Norfolk. Some businesses that are of interest to the public or that provide human services will be included in the database. Community Information Brant, Haldimand & Norfolk will not explicitly exclude any eligible organization from its database.

Disclaimer

Contact Brant is committed to provide a database that is accurate, up-to-date and comprehensive. However, we are unable to assume any liability resulting from errors or omissions. Inclusion or omission of a program or service is not a comment on its quality. Inclusion in this database does not constitute endorsement, and no recommendations of programs or services one over another will be given.

If you have any questions about this policy, please e-mail Community Information Brant, Haldimand & Norfolk at updates@contactbrant.net or proceed with your record suggestion and we will contact you if there are any problems.
